LOCATION MAP / KARTE

HISTORICAL OVERVIEW

The “Via Podiensis”, which starts from Le Puy-en-Velay (Haute-Loire), is one of the four main routes (with those of Paris, Vézelay and Arles) described from the twelfth century, to join the Spanish sanctuary of Santiago de Compostela. From the whole Christendom, pilgrims came to venerate the relics of the apostle of the Christ who was martyred in 44 A.D. in Palestine, whose corpse was miraculously brought to this land of Galicia.

Why Le Puy en Velay?

The town has been a Marian sanctuary since the fifth century. Crowds flocked to Le Puy-en-Velay whose fame and message spread all over Europe.

In the tenth century, the bishop Gothescalc, known as the first pilgrim to Santiago de Compostela, created closer links between Le Puy-en-Velay and the Spanish sanctuary. In 962, to reinforce this idea, a chapel dedicated to Saint-Michel was built on the volcanic rock of Aiguilhe.

Over the following centuries, the influence of Le Puy-en-Velay increased, attracting millions of pilgrims who came to pray before the statue of the Black Virgin, located on the high-altar of the cathedral. Then, some of them would start a pilgrimage (1600 kilometers), lasting several months, towards the end of the Iberian Peninsula.

It is precisely this dual migration which still represents today the specificity of the sanctuary and the route of Le Puy en Velay.

Since December 1998, the Cathedral of Notre-Dame du Puy, the Hôtel-Dieu (general hospital) of the town, as well as several parts of the route between le Puy-en-Velay and Ostabat, are registered in the World Heritage of the UNESCO.

HISTORISCHER ÜBERBLICK

Die Via Podiensis mit Ihrem Ausgangspunkt Le Puy-en-Velay ist einer der vier im zwölften Jahrhundert beschriebenen Wege nach Santiago de Compostella.

Pilger aus allen christlichen Ländern kamen um die Reliquien des 44 n. Ch. In Palestina martyrisierten Apostels zu verehren, die auf wundersame Weise nach Galizien gelangt waren.

Warum Le Puy-en-Velay ?

Die Stadt war seit 5. Jh. ein bekannter Marienwallfahrtsort dessen Ruf sich in ganz Europa verbreitete.

Im 10. Jh. beschloss der Bischof von Le Puy-en-Velay Gosthescalk, von dem man sagt er sei der erste Jakobspilger gewesen, seine Stadt enger mit dem spanischen Wallfahrtsort zu verbinden.

Um diesen Wunsch zu unterstreichen, liess er 962 auf dem Vulkanfelsen Aiguilhe eine dem Erzengel Michael geweihte Kapelle errichten.

Im Laufe der Jahrhunderte verbreitete sich der Ruf der Wallfahrtsstadt Le Puy-en-Velay: Millionen von Pilgern kamen, um vor der schwarzen Statue der Gottesmutter zu beten. Einige von ihnen zogen weiter über mehrere Monate nach Finisterra auf der spanischen Halbinsel (1600km).

Diese beiden Anziehungspunkte machen heute noch einen grossen Teil des Rufs dieses Wallfahrtsortes und des Wegs von Le Puy-en-Velay aus.

Seit Dezember 1998 sind die Kathedrale und das Hotel Dieu von Le Puy-en-Velay sowie 7 Teilstrecken des Jakobswegs zwischen Le Puy-en-Velay und Ostabat in das Weltkulturerbe der UNESCO aufgenommen.

PRACTICAL ADVICE

EQUIPMENT

Take "already broken" shoes (not new ones, some you've already walked with), high boots, with good support for ankles, light and waterproof, and with notched sole. Choose an insole which absorbs the vibrations efficiently. When you stop, if your shoes are wet, put newspaper inside because it will absorb moisture. Don't forget to take comfortable and light shoes for the evenings.

Socks must be chosen carefully. Opt for synthetic socks which are better for evacuating sweat, avoiding maceration and give a better elasticity. Avoid seams, twists...prefer lining (tip toe, heels)! You need at least 3 pairs of socks.

It is better to choose your backpack according to the number of days you want to walk, your size and the amount you can carry (around 10 to 12 kilos for a man and 8 to 10 kilos for a woman). Your backpack (having a capacity of 50 to 60 liters) must have: large adjustable straps, covered with foam rubber and with an adjustable waist belt which alleviates the shoulders by transferring some of the weight around the hips (not on the buttocks!) and stabilize the backpack, and different straps used to distribute the weight evenly and raise the bag.

Walking poles, useful during long-distance hikes, to reduce the weight of the backpack. They will help you avoiding pain in your knees and slow your way down the slope. Have a preference for light and adjustable. The handle has to be comfortable, in foam or cork, in order to avoid perspiration and frictions.

You need a sheet (or sleeping bag sheet) for hygienic reasons (blankets are provided in stopover gîte) and to sleep comfortably.

Bring a raincoat (cape, poncho, Gore Tex vest) which will also be used as a windbreaker. Also, protect your backpack. Take warm clothes (even in summer), light clothes, underwear, trousers and /or shorts, tee-shirts (avoid cotton which doesn't absorb sweat and takes a long time to dry).

A GPS and a compass can be really useful to find your way.

Don't forget to fill a flask/bottle. In villages, when the water isn't drinkable, a sign will say so. If not, it is deemed drinkable (don't hesitate to ask the inhabitants!). For the more fearful, think about taking tables to purify the water. Another piece of advice, there is always water in church cemeteries!

Think about basic toiletries, as well as some toilet paper and a first-aid kit.

TopoGuides® and travelling papers are mandatory. It is imperative to take the last published edition. Select and weigh the items that seem essential for you!

Less necessary ... maybe? Earplugs, sunglasses, gaiters, a knife, a headlamp, a lighter, a whistle to ask for help...

USEFUL INFORMATION

Booking : it is compulsory for groups to make a reservation. For isolated walkers, it is advisable to book accommodation from 12 to 24 hours before.

Training : It is advisable to train with a heavy backpack before starting. Otherwise, consider other options: by example, by soliciting a service provider to carry your luggage.

Stages : they can reasonably be 20 to 30 kilometers long per day. However, it is important to take into consideration the difference in the height of the land. It is said that you reach your rhythm of walking after 3 or 5 days. In summer, it is better to walk early in the day.

Be respectful of the environment, do not leave any paper, bottles or any kind of garbage behind!

CAR PARKS

- Underground car park Le Breuil (watched and underground)

During your stay, you can park in the underground car park of the Place du Breuil. It is open every day except on Sundays and bank holidays, from 7 am to 10 pm. The town of Le Puy-en-Velay offers very advantageous and special prices for hikers and pilgrims. As soon as you get there, present yourself at the reception desk to get the discount:

AUSRÜSTUNG

Wählen sie eingelaufene (keine neuen), leichte und wasserdichte Schuhe, die den Schweiß durchlassen, mit hohem Schaft und Halt an den Knöcheln sowie Profilsohlen . Die Innensohle sollte Stöße abfangen können .Abends sollten feuchte Schuhe mit Zeitungspapier ausgestopft werden, um die Feuchtigkeit aufzunehmen.

Denken sie an ein zweites Paar leichter und bequemer Schuhe für den Abend (manchmal werden auch Pantoffeln in den Wanderunterkünften gestellt !)

Logische Ergänzung des Schuhwerks sind die Socken, auch hier empfiehlt sich eine sorgfältige Auswahl : Baumwolle und Wolle tragen sich gut, aber die Baumwolle nimmt den Schweiß schlechter auf und gibt ihn schlechter wieder ab, Wolle reagiert besser ! Kunstfasern, die den Schweiß gut durchlassen, stehende Feuchtigkeit verhindern und elastisch sind, sind sicher vorzuziehen, Frotteestrukturen sind angenehm. Vermeiden sie Nähte und Muster, achten sie auf verstärkte Ferse und Spitz ; nehmen sie mindestens 3 Paar Socken mit !

Die Grösse eines Rucksacks hängt von der Wanderdauer sowie von der Morphologie und Tragefähigkeit des Wanderers ab : zwischen 10 und 12 kg für einen Mann, 8 bis 10 kg für eine Frau. Die Ausstattung eines guten Rucksacks (50 bis 60l Rauminhalt) : möglichst breite, verstellbare und mit Schaumstoff gepolsterte Trageriemen, einen verstellbaren Bauchgurt, der die Schultern entlasten kann und einen Teil der Last auf die Hüften (nicht auf den Hintern !) verteilt und damit den Rucksack stabilisiert, äussere Befestigungsriemen sowie Schlaufen für die Daumen (um das Anschwellen der Hände zu begrenzen).

Aus hygienischen Gründen nehmen sie einen Leinenschlafsack (oder Laken) mit ; Decken werden in den Wanderunterkünften gestellt. Es ist sinnvoll, einen Schlafsack mitzunehmen für den Fall, dass in den Unterkünften kein Platz mehr ist.

Nehmen sie solide Regenkleidung mit (Umhang oder Poncho), die auch als Windschutz dienen kann und ihren Rucksack vor Feuchtigkeit schützt !

Denken sie an ein warmes Kleidungsstück (auch im Sommer !) und keine schwere Kleidung : Unterwäsche, Hose und/oder Shorts, T-Shirt (vermeiden sie Baumwolle, leitet schlecht Schweiß ab und trocknet langsam !).

Vergessen ihre Wasserflasche nicht, aber werden sie nicht zum Wasserträger : Brunnen und Wasserstellen gibt es auf dem Weg ! Sollte das Wasser nicht trinkbar sein, ist dies angeschrieben (im Zweifelsfall die Anwohner fragen !) Ein Tip : in den meisten Friedhöfen gibt es Wasserhähne !

Reinlichkeit verpflichtet : nehmen sie Waschutensilien aber auch Toilettenpapier und eine kleine Reiseapotheke mit.

Weniger wichtig... vielleicht ? Wattestöpsel für die Ohren, Sonnenbrille, ein Kompass (wichtig bei plötzlichem Nebel ), Stulpen (nützlich bei Regen und gegen « hüpfende ».

Steinchen), ein Taschenmesser und eine Taschenlampe (mit Reservebatterien), ein Feuerzeug, einen Wanderstab, zum Stützen und Hunde abzuwehren, ein leichter Photoapparat...

Handys : Achtung, sie haben nicht überall Netzanschluss !Vorsichtshalber ist eine Telefonkarte sinnvoll.

Wanderkarten und Führer : ist es nötig sie daran zu erinnern, dass man immer die neuste Ausgabe haben sollte ; wählen und wiegen sie die ihnen wichtig erscheinenden Dokumente ! Nehmen sie nicht ihre ganze Bibliothek mit.

RELIGIOUS INFORMATION

The Creanciale of the Catholic Church

The creanciale is a recommendation document testifying of the state of pilgrim. The creanciale commits the one who delivers it as well as the one who presents it to its host along the way. It's a strong sign of affiliations to the pilgrims' people. It's also a sign of mutual and confident welcoming between the pilgrim, Christian or not, and the Church, as the creanciale has to be delivered by hand after an interview with a delegate explicitly representing the Catholic Church on the Christian meaning of the pilgrimage.

The creanciale cannot be sent by post. You can obtain it:

- After the mass and benediction at the Cathedral: from April 1st to October 31st, every day at 7 am. From November 1st to March 31st, from Monday to Friday at 7:30 am.
- During the opening time of the sacristy :

Le Credencial del Peregrino

If you can do without de credential in France, it is almost essential in Spain. This passport with the daily stamp allows the pilgrim - if necessary - to justify that he is a pilgrim on his way to Santiago de Compostela in France and Spain. Some religious communities or people can welcome pilgrims for the night if they have this passport. This free welcome is only there to help pilgrims and to exchange. But it is advisable to give something for the accommodation.

This passport is not free. To obtain the Credencial, please contact:

- Accueil Saint Jacques in Le Puy-en-Velay
- Société des Amis de Saint-Jacques
- Association Rhône-Alpes des Amis de Saint-Jacques

La Compostela

This pilgrimage certifiacte is given to the pilgrim at his arrival in Santiago de Compostela when he shows his Créanciale or his Credencial (which proves that the pilgrim has walked the last 100 kilometers in Spain or ridden the last 300 kilometers with his mountain bike). It is given by the pilgrimage office in the Cathedral of Santiago de Compostela (1, rue de Villar).

Masses and benedictions at the Cathedral Notre-Dame du Puy

Eine Creanciale (Pilgerpass) ist ein Empfehlungsschreiben, das den Pilger als solchen ausweist. Sie ist ein Engagement für denjenigen, der sie ausstellt wie für den, der sie auf seinem Weg seinen Gastgebern vorweist. Sie ist ein wichtiges Zeichen der Zugehörigkeit zum Volk der Pilger. Sie ist auch ein Zeichen gegenseitigen Vertrauens und Empfangs zwischen dem Pilger - Christ oder nicht - und der Kirche. Diese Creanciale sollte dem Pilger nach einem Gespräch über den christlichen Sinn der Pilgerreise mit einem Vertreter der katholischen Kirche eigenhändig übergeben werden.

Wo kann man sie erhalten ?

Sie wird morgens nach dem Gottesdienst um 7 Uhr (und um 7.30 Uhr von November bis März von Montag bis Freitag) in der Kathedrale angeboten. Man kann sie auch tagsüber in der Sakristei erfragen.

Man kann sie nicht per Post bestellen !

Le Credencial del Peregrino

Wenn man auch in Frankreich auf den Pilgerpass verzichten kann, so ist er in Spanien fast unabdingbar. Der Pass wird an jeder Etappe abgestempelt und erlaubt somit sich überall in Frankreich und Spanien als Pilger auszuweisen.

Einige religiöse Gemeinschaften und Privatpersonen nehmen soweit es ihnen möglich ist, Einzelpilger mit dem Pilgerpass für die Nacht auf.

Diese Aufnahme als Hilfe und Möglichkeit des Austauschs ist gratis. Die Höflichkeit und Umgangsformen gebieten trotzdem einen Beitrag zu den Unkosten zu hinterlassen.

Diese Credencial kann käuflich erworben werden. Wo kann man sie erhalten ?

- Beim accueil Saint Jacques au Puy-en-Velay
- Bei der Société des Amis de Saint-Jacques
- Bei der Association Rhône Alpes des Amis de Saint-Jacques

(Adressen in der Rubrik « nützliche Adressen » )

La Compostela

Diese Pilgerbescheinigung kann der Pilger bei seiner Ankunft in Santiago de Compostella bei Vorlage seiner abgestempelten Creanciale oder credencial (die beweist, dass der Pilger die letzten 100km in Spanien zu Fuss oder 300km mit dem Mountainbike zurückgelegt hat) erhalten. Sie wird vom Verein der Freunde von hl. Jakob ausgestellt. (1, rue de Villar)

ACCOMMODATION FROM LE PUY-EN-VELAY TO FIGEAC

FOR EACH ACCOMMODATION ITS OWN SERVICES

Stopover gîte (gîte d'étape): it is intended for individuals or groups of walkers for the night. The price of the night is fixed according to the geographical location, the services: use of kitchen, dormitories or bedrooms, bathroom and other services.

Local welcome center: this kind of accommodation belongs to the local municipality which provides a comfortable welcome to individuals or groups for one or several nights.

Hotels: more expensive solution, but which has the advantage of generally being available all year long.

Bed and Breakfast (chambres d'hôtes): it's situated in a housing of quality, with an outdoor space. The landlord favors the discovery of its "country". He is bound to welcome you personally and has to respect quality rule of comfort and equipment. In France, the Gîte de France's B&B include breakfast and household linen. A service of "table d'hôtes" can also be offered (meals).

Campsites (campings): more or less expensive solution, the price of the campsite depends on its number of stars, its equipment, etc. for the walker, the only drawback is that you have to carry the necessary equipment (tent, stove, sleeping...).

CR - COMPAGNON DE ROUTE ®

The hosts and service providers of the Walking Committee of Haute-Loire, Lozère and Aveyron are identified by the mention CR at the beginning of their insert. We invite you to favor these "Compagnons de Route" as they support the development of the hike and contribute to the markings and preservation of the walking trails.

The aim of this guide book is to help hikers and pilgrims in the organisation of their journey on the GR® 65 - Way to Santiago de Compostela, between Le Puy-en-Velay and Figeac. Even though the piece of information making it up is permanently updated, it remains indicative and likely of change over the months.

ÜNTERKÜNFTE VON LE PUY-EN-VELAY BIS FIGEAC

DIE BESONDERHEITEN JEDES UNTERKUNFTTYP

Ein Gîte d'étape oder accueil randonneurs (Wandererunterkunft): Sie sind als Übernachtungsmöglichkeit für Einzelwanderer und Gruppen gedacht (in der Regel ohne Fahrzeug). In Frankreich erklärt sich die Preisstaffelung dieser Unterkünfte durch die Lage und die Ausstattung: Küchenausstattung, Haushaltsgeräte, Schlafräume (2 oder 4 Betten), Waschgelegenheiten, Servicemöglichkeiten (Frühstück oder Halbpension). Der Besitzer (Gemeinde oder Privatpersonen) achtet auf ein gutes Preis/Leistungsverhältnis.

Ein Centre d'accueil communal (Gruppenunterkunft einer Ortsgemeinde): Dieser Unterkunfttyp gehört einer Gemeinde, die über eine korrekte Qualität dieser Gruppenunterkunft wacht. Die Reinigung der Räume ist zu Lasten der Gemeinde, der Benutzer ist gehalten, die Ausstattung (Küche, Schlafräume, Waschräume) pfleglich zu behandeln.

Die Chambre d'hôtes (Gästezimmer): Sie befinden sich zwangsläufig in einem Privathaus mit Garten oder Terrasse, in der Regel mit besonderem Charakter, auf dem Lande. Der Besitzer will durch seine Gastlichkeit dem Besucher das Entdecken der Reichtümer seiner Heimat erleichtern. Er empfängt seine Gäste persönlich und ist durch eine Charta an Qualitäts- und Ausstattungsnormen gebunden. In Frankreich sind diese Zimmer automatisch mit Frühstück und der Preis im Doppelzimmer ist korrekt.

Der Table d'hôtes (Gästetisch): Den Gästen der « Chambre d'hôtes » vorbehalten, bietet ein Gästetisch die Möglichkeit, regionale Küche am Familientisch kennenzulernen.

Camping: Für diejenigen, die Schlafräume fürchten, keine Vorreservierungen machen wollen oder keinen Platz mehr in den Unterkünften finden, ist dies die je nach Ausstattung mehr oder minder günstigste Lösung.

Ein Nachteil : die komplette Ausrüstung (Zelt, Kochgeschir, Essen, Schlafsack) muss mitgetragen werden !
Der Gîte de séjour (Ferienwohnung) : zur Erinnerung : diese Wohnungen werden in der Regel nur für mindestens eine Woche vermietet.
